His stock of American and European music is immense, and the catalogue of his own publications is one of the largest and best selected in the United States. He has also made a Great Reduction in the prices of Pianos, Melodeons, and Musical Instruments of all kinds. ## INSURANCE OFFICES.

WISCONSIN
Home Insurance Office,
No. 6 Kneeland's Block.
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN, MARCH 30, 1855

INSURANCE EFFECTED UPON DWELLING HOUSES, Stores and other Buildings, Household Furniture, Merchandise and other property, against

LOSS OR DAMAGE BY FIRE.

This is a new Company, organized the 25th of January last, on the Mutual plan, with the privilege by the Charter of doing business on the Cash plan, upon either Fire or Marine risks, but to the present time the business has been confined to the Mutual system of Insurance, and the very favorable and flattering manner in which the same has been received by the Insuring Public has induced the Directors to make it a purely Mutual Company. Besides this, it is believed that the recent failures of many of the Eastern Companies has been owing mainly to the combination of the Cash and Mutual System in one Company.

This Company commenced business with a capital of $50,000, and have already issued upwards of 800 policies, and it is believed that, with proper caution as to the selection of risks, and rigid economy in expenses, we shall soon be enabled to make this Company such a one as will generally be preferred.

The recent failures of several of the old Stock Companies, among the most prominent of which are the Protection and Columbus, although it is believed that their business was conducted in the most proper manner, has had a tendency to shake the confidence of many of the most reliable and prominent insurance men in the Stock plan of Insurance, and have induced them to believe that the only safe and reliable Companies are those conducted on the Mutual principle.

As it is the design of the Directors to do a profitable, rather than a large and therefore doubtful business, the company will take none except first class risks and at such rates as are deemed fully adequate to the risk. Agents are also instructed not to take to exceed $1000 upon any one risk, in Villages, within a circuit of 4 in rods diameter which of course will prevent very great loss at one fire.

Applications for Insurance, respectfully solicited.

Highly Important to Farmers.
The only Exclusive Farmers' Insurance Company in the West.
THE MADISON MUTUAL,
Located at Madison, Wisconsin.

THIS COMPANY CONTINUES TO TAKE RISKS upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible Companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereof.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses, only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two thirds if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops, and such like property. In this Company all such property is rejected RESOLUTELY by EXPRESS TERMS ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the Company.

MILWAUKEE MUTUAL
FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
Office in Martin's Block, Milwaukee.

Capital over $165,000—in Cash and Premium Notes.

THIS Company offers unrivalled facilities for the Insurance of Buildings and Personal Property against fire. The advantages offered, are security beyond the reach of circumstances, as the real estate insured is by law bound for the assessment made to cover losses beyond the power of evasion. Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one-third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomparable care with which losses are settled. During the last years, this Company have issued 2500 Policies, and [illegible] last three assessments at a cost to the property insured [illegible] exceeding two mills on one dollar. Its business is principally confined to this State.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
CELEBRATED CATHOLICON,
For the Relief and Cure of Suffering Females.

IT STANDS PREeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended usually called

Female Complaints.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites;—CHRONIC INFLAMMATION, AND ULCERATION OF THE WOMB, INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE, or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted,) no matter how severe or how long standing.

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in better condition.

I have no hesitation in saying Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon is invaluable in uterine diseases generally. I have used it in Fluor Albus, Amenorrhoea, Prolapsus Uteri, and in cases of extensive ulceration of the vagina and os uteri. It is worthy of the notice of the Faculty.
JOHN C. ORRICK, M. D.,
Baltimore, Md.

The Catholicon is doing good service here. All the patients that have tried the medicine have been benefited but one—and that one nothing will help.
Truly Yours,
WM. LAIRD HASLETT, M. D.,
July 6th, 1854. New Philadelphia, Ohio.

I must say, from my own experience and personal observations in my practice, it has proved to be the best and safest remedy for the difficulties for which it is recommended, viz: that of female weakness, such as Prolapsus Uteri, Fluor Albus, and all irregular and painful menstruation, and diseases of irritation of the female organs.
D. Y. FOOTE, M. D.,
Syracuse N. Y.

Those needing such a remedy should inquire into the merits of this medicine, and by calling at the store of the undersigned can obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use, together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

NOTWITHSTANDING the combination of music dealers to keep up the prices of non-copy right music, against the interests of native composers and their refusal to extend to Mr. Waters the courtesies of the trade, he is making immense sales—having abundant evidence that he has public countenance and support in his opposition to the Great Monopoly, and in his efforts to aid Native Talent, and to adopt the National Currency. His stock of American and European music is immense, and the catalogue of his own publications is one of the largest and best selected in the United States. He has also made a Great Reduction in the prices of Pianos, Melodeons, and Musical Instruments of all kinds. Superior toned 6½ octave pianos for $175, $200 and $225, interior of as good quality, and instruments as strong and as durable as those which cost $500. Pianos of every variety of style and price up to $1000, comprising those of ten different manufactories, among them the celebrated modern improved Horace Waters Pianos, and the first premium Æolian Pianos of T. ## INSURANCE OFFICES.

Home Insurance Office,

No. 6 Kirkland's Block.

MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN, MARCH 30, 1855

INSURANCE EFFECTED UPON DWELLING HOUSES, Stores and other Buildings Household Furniture, Merchandise and other property, against

LOSS OR DAMAGE BY FIRE.

This is a new Company, organized the 26th of January last, on the Mutual plan, with the privilege by the charter of doing business on the Cash plan, upon either. Since its Charter was granted, up to the present time the business has been confined to the Mutual system of Insurance, and the very favorable and flattering manner in which the same has been received by the insuring public has induced the Directors to make it a purely Mutual Company. Besides this, it is believed that the recent failures of many of the Eastern Companies has been owing mainly to the combination of the Cash and Mutual System in one Company.

This Company commenced business with a capital of $50,000, and have already issued upwards of 300 policies, and it is believed that, with proper attention to the selection of risks, and rigid economy in expenses, we shall soon be enabled to make this Company such a one as will be generally preferred.

The recent failures of several of the old Stock Companies, among the most prominent of which are the Protection and Columbus, although it is believed that their business was conducted in the most proper manner, has had a tendency to shake the confidence of many of the most reliable and prominent insurance men in the stock plan of insurance, and have induced them to believe that the only safe and reliable Companies are those conducted on the Mutual principle.

As it is the design of the Directors to do a profitable, rather than a large and therefore doubtful business, the company will take none except first class risks, and at such rates as are deemed fully adequate to the risk. Agents are also instructed not to take to exceed $1000 upon any one risk, in Village, within a circle of 4 rods diameter which of course will prevent very great loss at one fire.

Applications for Insurance, respectfully solicited.

Highly Important to Farmers.

The only Exclusive Farmers' Insurance Company in the West.

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

Located at Madison, Wisconsin.

THIS COMPANY CONTINUES TO TAKE RISKS upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible Companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses, and your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two thirds if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops, and such like property. In this Company all such property is rejected positively by express terms.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the Company.

Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one-third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomparable ease with which losses are settled. DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S

CELEBRATED CATHOLICON,

For the Relief and Cure of Suffering Females.

IT STANDS PRE-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended usually called

Female Complaints.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION, AND ULCERATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE, or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted), no matter how severe or how long standing.

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in better condition.

I have no hesitation in saying Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon is invaluable in uterine diseases generally. I have used it in Fluor Albus, Amenorrhœa, Prolapsus Uteri, and in cases of extensive ulceration of the vagina and os uteri. It is worthy of the notice of the Faculty.

JOHN C. ORRICK, M. D.,

The Catholicon is doing good service here. All the patients that have tried the medicine have been benefited but one—and that one nothing will help.

Truly Yours,

WM. LAIRD HARLETT, M. D.

July 8th, 1854. New Philadelphia, Ohio.

I must say, from my own experience and personal observation in my practice, it has proved to be the best and safest remedy for the difficulties for which it is recommended, viz. that of female weakness, such as Prolapsus Uteri, Fluor Albus, and all irregular and painful menstruation, and diseases of irritation of the genital organs.

Those needing such a remedy should inquire into the merits of this medicine, and by calling at the store of the undersigned can obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use, together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

Detroit and Milwaukee Railroad.

We republish, from the Detroit Tribune, an interesting article giving a history of the condition and prospect of the great railroad enterprise which is now known under the above name.—The Detroit & Pontiac and the Oakland & Ottawa Companies have been consolidated, and take the new name. At a meeting of the stockholders held on the 19th, the following directors were chosen: Henry N. Walker, Henry Ledyard, Henry P. Baldwin, Nelson P. Stewart, [illegible] Wight, Edmond A. Brush, and [illegible] of Detroit, Willard M. McConnell, of Pontiac—Harvey P. Gale, of Grand Rapids, and Henry N. Walker was subsequently chosen President.

The work, it will be seen, is being pushed along with energy, and, with ordinary good fortune, the eastern shore of Lake Michigan, at Grand Haven, will be reached in all next year. [illegible] the same time, the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. will have crossed this State, and our other roads will have stretched their arms far into the interior. With a line of superior steamers such as will be placed on Lake Michigan, the route between the East and West cannot fail to become one of the most popular [illegible], since it is the shortest, and can be made the [illegible] of all.

By means of steamers on Grand River, good use may be made of the new route as soon as the road is opened to Grand Rapids. Speed the good work, our neighbors of Detroit!

Musical Society Concert.—The concert given by our Musical Society at Young's Hall, on Friday evening, was one of the very best of the series, and gave additional evidence of the great proficiency of the Orchestra and Chorus, under the admirable training of Mr. Balatka. The performances commenced with a symphony by Beethoven, exquisitely played by the orchestra and deservedly applauded by the audience. Two fine choruses for male voices were given with fine effect, and a cantata by Mozart, for Soprano, with orchestral accompaniment, elicited the heartiest plaudits. The lady who sang this piece is a great accession to the Society. Her voice is rich, powerful and of remarkable compass, and with study and practice she cannot fail to become an accomplished artist.

The Hall was crowded, as usual, and the verdict of the audience was one of unanimous and unqualified approval. Next week we are to have Norma again, and we advise our music-loving neighbors in Racine, Kenosha, &c., to improve the opportunity of hearing this favorite opera sung in a style that would do credit to any city.

Norma Again.—It will be seen by the advertisement in another column that our Musical Society promises to give the members and the public generally another treat on Thursday evening of next week, by presenting again the Opera of Norma, lately performed with such brilliant success. The proceeds on the occasion of this second performance are for the benefit of Mr. Balatka, the accomplished and laborious Conductor.

Take Them Back.—We learn that Mr. Drew, agent for Captain Clements line of Steamers, has written to Mr. Mallory, the District Attorney, stating that he is ready to take back the paupers to Chicago who had been brought to this port from that city, and expressing his regret they should have been brought on their line of boats; that they had no knowledge of the parties being indigent and likely to be chargeable upon the authorities of Milwaukee, or they would under no circumstances have brought them. We understand they will be sent back, and hope this will end the sending by Chicago of her paupers to Milwaukee. One thing we can't help noticing, and that is, that all those brought here are greatly improved in health by the change [illegible].

Look out for Trade.—Our merchants will find it to their interest to take early measures for securing their share of the trade of the Lake Superior mining region. Large supplies of merchandise, provisions, &c., will be needed, and there is no good reason why a liberal portion of them should not be furnished from our city, if the proper means are taken.

Another New Territory.—A letter from New Mexico to the New Orleans Picayune states that the Legislature of that territory have some thoughts of memorializing Congress to erect a new territory out of the southern portion of New Mexico.

Just wait a little, gentlemen, till the Kansas affair is settled.

Eclipse of the Moon.—A total eclipse of the Moon will occur to-morrow night, commencing at about half past 8 P. M., and becoming total at about 9.20 P. M. The moon will remain obscured for an hour and a half, or thereabouts, and will not entirely emerge from the obscuration till near midnight.

There will be another eclipse this year, on the night of October 25th.

For the Sentinel.

"The Public Square."

Messrs. Editors:—Those of our citizens who are obliged to pass through our Public Square on pleasure or business, cannot fail to thank the Providence that blessed us with our present City Fathers! It detracts somewhat from their credit, that strangers find a little inconvenience at the absence of names from our Streets. But a look at the Public Square will satisfy any one, that the expense of keeping that in order cannot be underrated, and that the improvements there apparent must absorb all the stray cash of the City Treasury!

Carefully trimmed trees—walks nicely rolled and innocent of grass save in tufts—the fastidious neatness in the immediate vicinity of the Court House—all show that if we have but one Square, it will be worthy of our thriving city, and that whoever has charge of the Square has an exquisite taste which every true citizen will delight to honor!

It is not generally known that there is at present a "live exhibition" at the Square. Wisconsin boasts her valuable "stock," and well she may. A look at the Square will satisfy you that the sheep are everything that could be desired; the dogs are of various nondescript races—but by far the richest supply is in Hogs, and the admirer of that domestic quadruped can roam at will from the "[illegible]" who with bristles erect is ever ready for fight—to the diminutive piggy who wriggles while he roots!

In addition to these various attractions, a philanthropic individual at certain hours, morning and evening, delights the audience with brilliant flourishes on a key bugle, which though they labor under the disadvantage of sometimes starting nervous horses—thereby putting in danger valuable lives, still as an evening contemporary would have it—"as great as a "valuable staple," the horses hadn't ought to be nervous and the bodies with the valuable lives hadn't ought to be in the way!"*

Will the Sentinel have the kindness to inform us to whom we are indebted for such luxuries, and oblige a grateful TAX-PAYER.

RAMBLES IN EUROPE—NO. 9.

MARSEILLES, March 1st, 1855.

Valley of the Rhone—Process of making Wine—Roman Antiquities—Avignon—Palace of the Popes—Petrarch—Marseilles—Soldiers going to the Wars—Notre Dame de la Garde.

From the city of Lyons the passengers are taken on board of a steamer to Valence in four hours, and thence by railroad to Marseilles. The railroad is finished all the way, but the road is so much crowded now with troops and military store pushing on for the Crimea, that government will not have it opened for the transit of passengers. But I was not sorry for this arrangement, on account of the charming view I had of one of the most magnificent and interesting countries I ever saw or ever expect to see. All persons who pass on this great thoroughfare would do well to take a steamer through this portion of the valley of the Rhone.

Imagine a river larger than the Hudson, with a stronger current rushing on, often in short abrupt turns through mountains very similar to the highlands, and these mountains terraced down to the bottom and covered with vineyards—occasionally high precipitous spurs of lofty ranges, terminating suddenly with an almost perpendicular front, upon whose storm beaten summit is seen a frowning castle in ruins—with small straggling villages, cut as it were out of the solid rock on the margin of the river; peasant cottages scattered along indiscriminately—and you have some idea of this picturesque country. There is very seldom seen any trees or anything like vegetation on these mountains, except the vineyards. Occasionally is seen a round topped hill with a scanty scarf of black bushes around its shoulder, pushing forward its naked and almost precipitous sides into the river, but it is seldom. In America we would think it was almost impossible to climb them, yet by the perseverance and industry of the peasantry here, a soil has been dug out of their flinty sides and with a warm sun and mountain dews, the best kind of grapes are grown.

They differ too in another particular from the Catskill mountains—they are shorter and more often broken by deep gorges. These gorges are also improved in the same manner. There can be of course no roads for even the little donkeys in most places, but little zigzag tracks or paths can be distinctly traced out where the peasants of both sexes ascend and descend. In many places where it was solid rock, banks or terraces have been made and earth carried up from the river to make a soil. The colour of the soil generally appears to be of a reddish hue. On further inquiry, I find that these vineyards are generally owned by proprietors who often employ from four to five hundred vintagers at the same time. The process of making the red wine is as follows; The grapes as they are brought in, are thrown into large troughs and then trodden by a number of men with large wooden shoes, until the grapes are all nearly broken, they are then taken out into baskets, with spaces wide enough to allow the grapes to pass through, when thus about two thirds of the stalks are separated from the grapes. The whole is then put back again into the vat containing the juice, which was extracted by the treading. A space is left of one foot in the vat for fermentation. Over the whole is then placed a sliding lid which prevents the escape of the gas. It takes from two to ten days, according to the state of the weather, to produce the necessary fermentation; when it slackens, the whole sinks within the top of the vat; the stalks, remaining skins, and other extraneous substances are found at the top, completely separated from the pure liquor. The latter is then drawn off into huge casks containing about 700 gallons each. Every three or four months it is pumped into other vats of the same dimensions and the settlings carefully removed with a brush and cold water. This is continued until it is perfectly pure. It is then bottled and kept from two to twelve years, when it is marketed. Such is the process of making Burgundy wine.

All through the valley to the Mediterranean, are found Roman antiquities—such as the remains of aqueducts, walls and arches, amphitheatres, temples and churches. At several small villages may be seen traces of the vast aqueduct constructed it is said by the soldiers of Mark Anthony, when his legions were quartered at Lyons to supply the city with water from the distant mountains of La Forez. Also are seen remains of Agrippa's four great walls diverging from the same city towards the sea and in three other directions. At Nismes, a village not far distant, I am informed there are many well preserved antiquities; among the rest an amphitheatre of immense proportions. It consists of two stories, each of sixty arcades, seventy feet high. There were originally thirty-two rows of seats, and the number of spectators which it is supposed the building might have contained is variously estimated at from 15,000 to 25,000. Many of the seats, doors and corridors, remain entire.

From Valence we again took the railroad to Marseilles, distant over 200 miles. With the exception that the mountains are less abrupt and the valley of the Rhone much wider, the country presents the same peculiarities. The vineyards, however, give place to other kinds of crops, both sown and planted, but what they were I could not learn. The meadows were highly cultivated and abounded in fruit trees. The air was more soft and balmy, and I felt as if I were approaching a southern climate.

At a little before dark we reached the city of Avignon—the ancient city of the popes. It is still surrounded by lofty walls and battlements and flanked by watch towers. The palace of the Popes, now converted into a barrack, is still magnificent on account of its immense proportions, and very impressive notwithstanding its present degradation, from the historical associations connected with it. It is in its architecture of a mixed character, having the appearance both of a feudal castle and convent. Its walls are 100 feet high and some of its towers 150 feet, with a proportionate thickness. In these splendid halls that now echo blasphemous oaths, or the ribald song, the Cardinals sat and elected the Popes. Giotto and his pupils adorned the walls. Here Petrarch was a guest, and in the dungeons below, Rienzi, the Roman tribune, was a prisoner. Not far from the city in a little quiet village almost inaccessible by reason of the high and rugged rocks around it, is still shown the retired garden of Petrarch, by the side of a natural grotto in the rock, cultivated with his own hands. From this spot in hearing of a gushing stream; the poet thus wrote to a friend, long, long ago:

"The Sorgues, transparent as crystal, rolls over its emerald bed; and by its bank I cultivate a little sterile and stony spot, which I have destined to the muses; but the jealous nymphs dispute the possession of it with me; they destroy in the spring, the labors of my summer. I had conquered from them a little meadow and had not enjoyed it long, when, upon my return from a journey into Italy, I found that they had robbed me of all my possession. But I was not to be discouraged; I collected the laborers, the fishermen and the shepherds and raised a rampart against the nymphs; and there we raised an altar to the muses; but alas! experience has proved that it is in vain to battle with the elements. I no longer dispute with the Sorgues a part of its bed; the nymphs have gained the victory. Hence I please myself with my little gardens and my narrow dwelling. I want nothing and look for no favors from fortune. If you come to me you will see a solitary, who wanders in the meadows, the fields, the forests and the mountains, resting on the mossy grottoes or beneath the shady trees. Your friend detests the intrigues of court, the tumult of cities, and flies from the abodes of pageantry and pride—equally removed from joy or sadness, he passes his days in the most profound calm, happy to have the muses for his companions, and the song of birds and the murmur of the stream for his serenade."

As it was quite dark when we left Avignon, I saw nothing of the balance of the journey to this city.

Marseilles, the most important seaport of France, contains a population of 200,000 inhabitants and is the most American-like City in Europe. Its buildings are mostly modern, its streets wide and airy and humming with the various sounds of business. The old harbor being found entirely too small for the large amount of shipping centering here, a new and capacious harbor is nearly completed north of the old one, which has been built at a great expense. The commerce of this city is said to date back three thousand years, to the time when the Phœnicians first set foot on her shores, bringing with them the civilization of the East, which in time worked a change in the barbarianism of the west.—But obviously the main reason of its prosperity particularly at the present time is owing to the advantages of a good harbor and the fact that the French are now monopolizing the trade of the Mediterranean. Even Englishmen, in travelling either to the East Indies, Asia or the Crimea, pass over to Paris and thence to Marseilles, instead of going round by water to this point. Several lines of French steamers start from here for various points on the Mediterranean and all of those of the British lines stop here.

But the boats are now mostly shipping troops and war supplies; during a stay of four days here I presume ten thousand troops have left. The news of sickness and death in the barracks, with all the horrors of a protracted siege, has no terrors for a French soldier. True to the character of the Troubador in days that are past he thus takes leave of his fair one, and then he is in the line keeping time with the heavy tread of his fellows, as they defile off towards the sea, to the inspiring strains of martial music;

"I'm leaning o'er the gate, Annie,
'Neath the cottage wall;
The gray dawn breaks, the hour grows late,
I hear the trumpet's call.
I could not brook thy cheek so pale,
The sad tear in thine eye;
This heart, which laughs at war, might quail—
So, Annie dear, good bye!

"I'm marching with the brave, Annie,
Far from home and thee,
To win renown, perhaps a grave—
A glorious one 'twill be!
But whatever the fate I meet—
To conquer or to die—
This heart's last throb for thee will beat—
So, Annie dear, good bye!"

These companies of troops are all well drilled and would favorably compare with the independent companies in large American Cities, being however under more rigid discipline. In war as on sea I find that every man has a place and knows where it is. The necessity of the case makes that law absolute.

In the South part of the City is a high barren cliff or mass of rock overhanging the Sea called Notre Dame de la Garde, from a curious little chapel situated within a foot on its summit. Within this humble shrine is an image of the virgin of olive wood, and of great antiquity, which is held in great respect by the lower classes. The inside is hung with thousands of ex-votos, chiefly paintings representing hairbreadth escapes by sea and land &c., &c. These are generally put up by fishermen's and sailor's wives, merchants &c., for absent friends.

The view from the top of this hill is very fine. To the south are seen the calm waters of the Mediterranean dotted with sail and the city lying down in a basin, surrounded by hills on all other sides. These hills are covered with vineyards and olive gardens, and speckled with white country houses. In the distance is seen the bleak form of Monte Christo towering up. This mountain is remembered from Dumas' novel.

The Fighting before Sebastopol.

The correspondent of the London Times, under date of March 22d, gives the following graphic sketch, which seems to describe the almost daily and nightly course of events for some weeks previously:

The contest for the rifle-pits terminated this morning, amid a blaze of fire from the forts in the pale light of dawn, in favor of the French who now occupy three of the pits, and direct a sharp fusillade against the Mamelon and Round Tower from the sand-bags. The Russian riflemen are in one of the pits still; two seem to be unoccupied. The enemy have also placed riflemen in the Mamelon and the new work on the right, and a gun from Gordon's trenches, and one from the French redoubt on the right are constantly engaged in firing round shot and shell into the former place throughout the day, to reduce the fire and impede the men in their work. Our two sea service mortars fire seldom, but surely; their range is very great. One shell yesterday evening went far over and beyond the Round Tower, and burst among the buildings in the rear of it. Another burst through the roof of one of the public buildings, and it instantly collapsed into a cloud of dust and rubbish.

For the last half hour—it is now 10.45 P. M.—a furious fight has been raging all along our front. To a person standing on Cathcart's-hill, in front of the 4th Division, the whole of the Russian lines are revealed in successive glimpses by bursts of red flame, and the bright star-like flashes of musketry, twinkled all over the black expanse between us and the town for three or four miles in length, show that a fierce contest is going on before the trenches of the Allies.—Shells, each marked by a distinctive point of fire where the fuse is burning, describe their terrible curves in the air and seem to mingle with the stars, and fiery rockets with long trails of dropping sparks rush like comets through the air. Above all the pale crescent moon is shining from a deep blue sky, covered with the constellations of heaven. The roar of the cannon, the hissing of the shells, the intermittent groan of the musketry, the wild scream of the rockets, and the whizzing of the round shot, form a horrid concert.

It is curious to note the eagerness of the men on such occasions; they swarm out of their tents to the lines in front, and watch the progress of the fight, as far as they can make it out, with the deepest interest, and their whispered comments are most amusing—"That's a lively shell from the French!" "Mossoo is getting his bellyful." "I wish they'd let us go at that, and we'd not waste so much powder," &c.

The flashes of the cannon mark pretty distinctly the flowings and ebbings of the tide of war. If the Russian guns are thundering away we may be sure, they are falling back. If our guns are more briskly served than usual, we are either covering an attack on the pits or are protecting the withdrawal of the allies. Most of the Generals on nights like these come out to the front and watch the fight, and the officers form in little groups on all the elevated knolls before the camps. I have just returned to the hut in which I am lodging. It is now 11. 15 P. M., but the conflict is still going on. No one knows what it is about. To-morrow I hope to be able to learn something about it, but the difficulty of ascertaining the particulars of attacks like these is utterly incredible. Even the staff officers—even the generals themselves—seldom know anything respecting the proceedings of our allies till a day after they have taken place, and a bystander hears with surprise warm controversies among military men as to the direction in which a shell is coming at night, and as to the battery—whether French or English—from which it has been sent.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The returns show an increase in the English revenue for the last financial year of £6'312,694, the bulk of which is due to the double income tax.

The Board of Trade returns for the month ending March 5, had just been published, and showed compared with the corresponding month of last year, the unprecedented decrease of nearly £2,500,000 sterling, furnishing strong evidence of the rapid contraction of business throughout the country.

Some of the Liverpool ship-owners who had charters from Government for transports, have been informed that their ships will not be required. This is scarcely to be taken as a peace indication.

Mr. Layard had gone to Aberdeen, Scotland, to receive investiture and make an oration as Rector of the University of that city.

Launch of the Ann Thain.—A fine vessel of about 85 tons burthen, owned by ——— Anderson, was launched from the ship yard of E. Sorenson on Monday evening last. She went off in fine style and like most of the Manitowoc vessels fits upon the water like a duck.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT—April 28.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, ESQ., POLICE JUSTICE.

George Bryant was brought down from jail to be examined on a charge of larceny. The defendant waived an examination and the court fixed the bail for his appearance at the Circuit Court at $1,000, but at the suggestion of the District Attorney, reduced the amount to $700. The bail was not forthcoming and the defendant was remanded to jail.

Breaking Windows.—Thos. Hanley and John Leonard were tried for breaking the windows in the New York House a night or two since. The only evidence against the defendant Leonard, was that he was near the scene of the trouble, so drunk that he had to hold on to a post to keep himself from falling, and was afterwards found lying in the middle of the street, and with the help of two men was taken to jail—he was discharged. The other man, Hanley, admitted he had done half the breaking of the windows; he was also intoxicated, but not to any great extent. Hanley was fined $25 and costs. The latter is the young man who came into the Police Court on Saturday last intoxicated, and was committed to jail for contempt of court. The court remarked that as he seemed determined to get drunk and get in scrapes, it would be for his own good that he should punish him to some extent. The fine not being paid, the defendant was taken to jail.

Runaway.—A runaway of the steeple-chase kind took place on Saturday afternoon, the winning post appearing to be located in front of the American House. A span of horses belonging to Wilson & Besley, come down Spring street at a full gallop, with a lumber wagon, which part of the time was behind them, and when opposite the American House tried to leap over a dirt cart, but failed. The three horses were piled in a heap—two of them badly injured—one will probably die. No person was injured.

Schr. May Queen.—This new and beautiful vessel, recently launched at Jones' shipyard, has already commenced loading at Alvord's warehouse. She takes about 11,000 bushels wheat, at a freight of 20c per bush to Buffalo.

The Census.—The acts, oaths, blanks, &c., for taking the Census, were received on Saturday by Mr. Bade, clerk of the Board of Supervisors. According to the act, the Census must be taken between the first of June and first of August.

For Green Bay.—The steamer Superior, Capt. Tompkins, leaves Dousman's dock for Green Bay, touching at Sheboygan, Manitowoc and Two Rivers, on Wednesday morning at 8, o'clock.—For passage, apply to J. Griffin, on Huron St.

This is the first trip of the season to the bay, and the steamer will doubtless have a good load. We hope that she will bring back some of the stone which we are looking for.

Map of Watertown.—We acknowledge the receipt of a very handsome lithographed Map of the thriving city of Watertown, drawn by our friend Judson Prentice, late Senator from Dodge Co. The whole city, with its noble water-power, plank-road, railroads, public buildings, &c., &c., is marked out on a scale convenient to the operator in real estate; and profitable operations of that sort are not rare about these days.

Removals.—Mr. L. Morawetz, as will be seen by his advertisements, opens this morning at one of the new and splendid stores built on the site of the old United States block.

Charles Preusser has removed his jewelry establishment to 249 East Water Street, where he remains until his new store is completed. This will be a very handsome building, and is to cost $8000

Architect.—See the card of Mr. J. Dillenberg, Architect, whose services may be obtained by calling at his office in the Juneau Block.

Mills for Sale.—The excellent Mills at Cerresco and Ripon, Fond du Lac Co. are offered for sale. They will be good investments for somebody.

☞ Bosworth & Sons notify the public of the receipt of new goods at their new and handsome store.

House to Let.—See advertisement of S. Bishop.

Swine Running at Large.

Messrs Editors:—I notice in this morning's Sentinel, an article in reference to the grievous annoyance and nuisance of Swine running at large in the streets. The only remedy I know of, is an Ordinance to be found upon the 9th page of the Book of Ordinances of the City, the 1st Section of which prohibits the running at large of certain animals, including Swine, under a penalty of two dollars for each and every offence—the remainder of the ordinance provides for impounding, &c. Now I advise "Pro Bono Publico" to stir up the "animals," and give them a few doses of the ordinance, or provide himself with a loaded musket and feed them well with Peas, or something more substantial, when they force his gates, as I intend to do—and should the "critter," take it into his head to die under such treatment and the owner claim payment, commence a suit against him at once for the penalty under the 1st section of the ordinance, and for damages. LAW AND ORDER.

How to Abate a Nuisance.

Messrs. Editors:

In your issue of this morning, "Pro Bono Publico" asks if there be not some way to protect our gardens, yards, streets, &c., from the ravages of swine, I can suggest one. Let an Ordinance empower any one, to take and hold possession of all swine found at large, this will effectually cure the evil. In Detroit or Cleveland, a Negro made himself rich in three months, by such an Ordinance. Let such an Ordinance be passed in our city and in one month there will be such a scarcity of pigs-face in our streets as would satisfy the strictest Israelite in all the land of Goshen. MAC.

Milwaukee, April 28.

Detroit and Milwaukee Rail Road.

The engineer of this important enterprise, Robert Higham, Esq., has prepared his report of the Detroit and Pontiac and the Oakland & Ottawa, now the Detroit & Milwaukee Rail Roads, with the cost, and the estimated business when finished. From this report we gather such facts as we can find for to-day, believing we can give our readers nothing that has a more direct bearing upon the fortunes of this city and the portion of the State intersected by it. The length of this road from Pontiac to Lake Michigan is 160 miles.—The original contractors for the work, finding it impracticable to fulfil their contracts, abandoned it in 1853, and in November of the same year, a new contract was made for the work from Pontiac to Owasso, a distance of fifty three miles, embracing the entire construction of the road except the right of way, iron, chairs, and buildings. In August last the remainder of the work was let including every thing except the right of way and buildings.

Twenty-six hundred tons of iron purchased in England has been delivered in New York twelve hundred tons of which is now in Detroit, and the balance in course of transit from New York to this city. The right of way from Pontiac to Clinton county—88 miles—has been secured, except in a few cases, where the owners could not be found.

In this city the Company have procured a river front of one-third of a mile (1650 feet) east from Randolph street, and of an average width of 360 feet for their depot, machine shops, car shops freight houses &c. This purchase will give the Company the most extensive depot grounds probably, in the Union, and as eligible as any other. It gives them a river front three times the length of that of the Michigan Central Road even, and of considerably greater width. It is admirably situated for the purposes intended, being almost in the heart of the city, and directly opposite the terminus of the Great Western Railway.

There are several well ascertained points on the line where traffic centres from a large surrounding territory at which the road might be temporarily terminated, and the portion constructed made profitable by being put in operation, in connection with the Pontiac Railroad. The very unfavorable time in regard to financial matters in which the road was commenced, has somewhat retarded its progress, and it was feared this course might have become necessary. But the present indications are that the work will be pushed ahead without interruption. The ties are already nearly all delivered from Fentonville to Owasso, and the road may be ready for the cars, if the iron can be had, by the first of August next. The contractors are also at work from Owasso to Ionia, and at the rate the work has progressed, the grading will be ready to the superstructure by September next. From Ionia to Lake Michigan, there is no very formidable work required, and nothing that requires more than 18 months to complete this part of the line.

The estimate made of the whole cost of the work in 1854, was $5,150,000. Its total cost under existing contract will amount to $6,192,000, or an increase of $1,042,000 over that estimate. This increase is in consequence of the price at which the Pontiac Company held their stock above what was estimated, and the purchase of the Depot grounds in this city.

The capacity of the road for business, by reason of the low grades, the large radius of the curves, and the great proportion of straight lines to the curves, it is estimated by the Engineer, will exceed that of the New York Central Road, or the Great Western. When finished it will be a complete work in itself extending across the entire Sate, and might safely rely upon the resources of the country through which it runs for its support. But its position as part of the Great Northern trunk line from Boston and New York to the Mississippi, and finally, from thence to the Pacific, gives it, in a measure, a national character, and secures to a large amount of through traffic between the country west of Lake Michigan and from the east. Its connection to the west are by ferries across Michigan with the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad, and in the east by the Great Western, with the New York Central, and all its branches and connections.

By a table accompanying the report, it is shown that the population tributary to this road exceeds that tributary to the Michigan Central within the State, and that the amount of improvements and products are in the most cases equal to, and in some exceed those of the Central Road. The experience of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Road for the last year, showing a traffic of $456,864, on 97 miles, is pointed to as convincing evidence that the Detroit & Milwaukee road will be a profitable investment when completed. The experience of the Great Western for the last year is also referred to for the same purpose.

But we have not time to-day to give any very extended extracts from this interesting and very satisfactory report. We have given enough, however, to show that the work on the Detroit and Milwaukee road has been making all the progress that could have been reasonably expected, in view of the great financial embarrassment that has prevailed throughout the country since it was commenced. Indeed, the surprise to us is, that the company have been able to do anything for the past year. All railroad enterprises in other parts of the country have been suspended with scarcely an exception. The citizens of Detroit and of Northern Michigan have reason to congratulate themselves that the work on this road is an exception. The Board of Directors are certainly entitled to the warmest thanks of those interested for the energy with which they have struggled against all embarrassment, and the sacrifices they have made to prevent a suspension of operations.—Detroit Tribune.

Quick Trip.—The schooner Transit, Captain Hughes, owned by B. Jones & Co. of this village, has made three trips to Milwaukee and one to Waukegan within the space of sixteen days.—[Manitowoc Tribune.

A little girl crossing Broadway, above the mound, a day or two ago, was knocked down and badly bruised by the reckless driving of a drunken brute, who immediately put whip to his horse and made off. Several persons ran to see if the child was hurt. Whilst some cursed the driver—some pitied the child, and others wondered who she was—an old countryman got down from his wagon, drew from his pocket a bottle of Mustang Liniment, bathed the wounds upon the child, and carried her in a state of insensibility, to a neighboring house, which proved to be her home. Yesterday he had the satisfaction to see her quite well "Ah!" said the old man, "I never knew it to fail—I always carry a bottle in my pocket;" and so he does.

Detroit and Milwaukee Railroad.

We republish, from the Detroit Tribune, an interesting article giving a history of the condition and prospect of the great railroad enterprise which is now known under the above name.—The DETROIT & PONTIAC and the OAKLAND & OTTAWA Companies have been consolidated, and take the new name. At a meeting of the stockholders held on the 19th, the following directors were chosen: HENRY N. WALKER, HENRY LEDYARD, HENRY P. BALDWIN, NELSON P. STEWART, BUCKMINSTER WIGHT, EDMOND L. BRUSH, and [illegible] of Detroit, WILLARD M. McCONNELL of Pontiac—HARVEY P. GALE, of Grand Rapids, and HENRY N. WALKER was subsequently chosen President.

The work, it will be seen, is being pushed along with energy, and, with ordinary good fortune, the eastern shore of Lake Michigan, at Grand Haven, will be reached in all next year. In the mean time, the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. will have crossed this State, and our other roads will have stretched their arms far into the interior. With a line of superior steamers such as will be placed on Lake Michigan, the route between the East and West cannot fail to become one of the most popular of any, since it is the shortest, and can be made the speediest of all.

By means of steamers on Grand River, good use may be made of the new route as soon as the road is opened to Grand Rapids. Speed the good work, our neighbors of Detroit!

MUSICAL SOCIETY CONCERT.—The concert given by our Musical Society at Young's Hall, on Friday evening, was one of the very best of the series, and gave additional evidence of the great proficiency of the Orchestra and Chorus, under the admirable training of Mr. BALATKA. The performances commenced with a symphony by Beethoven, exquisitely played by the orchestra and deservedly applauded by the audience. Two fine choruses for male voices were given with fine effect, and a cantata by Mozart, for Soprano, with orchestral accompaniment, elicited the heartiest plaudits. The lady who sang this piece is a great accession to the Society. Her voice is rich, powerful and of remarkable compass, and with study and practice she cannot fail to become a superb vocalist.

The Hall was crowded, as usual, and the verdict of the audience was one of unanimous and unqualified approval. Next week we are to have "Norma" again, and we advise our music-loving neighbors in Racine, Kenosha, &c., to improve the opportunity of hearing this favorite opera sung in a style that would do credit to any city.

NORMA AGAIN.—It will be seen by the advertisement in another column that our Musical Society promises to give the members and the public generally another treat on Thursday evening of next week, by presenting again the Opera of Norma, lately performed with such brilliant success. The proceeds on the occasion of this second performance are for the benefit of Mr. Balatka, the accomplished and laborious Conductor.

TAKE THEM BACK.—We learn that Mr. Drew, agent for Captain Clements line of Steamers, has written to Mr. Mallory, the District Attorney, stating that he is ready to take back the paupers to Chicago, who had been brought to this port from that city, and expressing his regret they should have been brought on their line of boats; that they had no knowledge of the parties being indigent and likely to be chargeable upon the authorities of Milwaukee, or they would under no circumstances have brought them. We understand they will be sent back, and hope this will end the sending by Chicago of her paupers to Milwaukee. One thing we can't help noticing, and that is, that all those brought here are greatly improved in health by the change [illegible].

LOOK OUT FOR TRADE.—Our merchants will find it to their interest to take early measures for securing their share of the trade of the Lake Superior mining region. Large supplies of merchandise, provisions, &c., will be needed, and there is no good reason why a liberal portion of them should not be furnished from our city, if the proper means are taken.

ANOTHER NEW TERRITORY.—A letter from New Mexico to the New Orleans Picayune states that the Legislature of that territory have some thoughts of memorializing Congress to erect a new territory out of the southern portion of New Mexico.

Just wait a little gentlemen, till the Kansas affair is settled!

ECLIPSE OF THE MOON.—A total eclipse of the Moon will occur to-morrow night, commencing at about half past 8 P. M., and becoming total at about 9.20 P. M. The moon will remain obscured for an hour and a half, or thereabouts, and will not entirely emerge from the obscuration till near midnight.

There will be another eclipse this year, on the night of October 25th.

For the Sentinel.

"The Public Square."

MESSRS EDITORS:—Those of our citizens who are obliged to pass through our Public Square on pleasure or business, cannot fail to thank the Providence that blessed us with our present City Fathers! It detracts somewhat from their credit, that stray geese find a little inconvenience at the absence of [illegible] from our Streets. But a look at the Public Square will satisfy any one, that the expense of keeping that in order cannot be understood, and that the improvements there apparent must absorb all the stray cash of the City Treasury!

Carefully trimmed trees—walks nicely rolled and innocent of grass save in tufts—the fastidious neatness in the immediate vicinity of the Court House—all show that if we have but one Square, it will be worthy of our thriving city, and that whoever has charge of the Square has an exquisite taste which every true citizen will delight to honor!

It is not generally known that there is at present a "Stock Exhibition" at the Square. Wisconsin boasts her valuable "stock," and well she may. A look at the Square will satisfy you that the sheep are every thing that could be desired; the dogs are of various nondescript races—but by far the richest supply is in Hogs, and the admirer of that domestic quadruped can roam at will from the "B[illegible]"* who with bristles erect is ever ready for fight—to the diminutive piggy who wriggles while he roots!

In addition to these various attractions, a philanthropic individual at certain hours, morning and evening, delights the audience with brilliant flourishes on a key bugle, which though they labor under the disadvantage of sometimes startling nervous horses—thereby putting in danger valuable lives, still as an evening contemporary would term it—"as great as a "saleable staple," the [illegible] hasn't ought to be nervous and the bodies with the vacuum [illegible] hadn't ought to be in the way!"

Will the Sentinel have the kindness to inform us to whom we are indebted for such luxuries, and oblige a grateful TAX-PAYER.

*The bad pun is ours.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

RAMBLES IN EUROPE—NO. 9.

MARSEILLES, March 1st, 1855.

Valley of the Rhone—Process of making Wine—Roman Antiquities—Avignon—Palace of the Popes—Petrarch—Marseilles—Soldiers going to the Wars—Notre Dame de la Garde.

From the city of Lyons the passengers are taken on board of a steamer to Valence in four hours, and thence by railroad to Marseilles. The railroad is finished all the way, but the road is so much crowded now with troops and military store pushing on for the Crimea, that government will not have it opened for the transit of passengers. But I was not sorry for this arrangement, on account of the charming view I had of one of the most magnificent and interesting countries I ever saw or ever expect to see. All persons who pass on this great thoroughfare would do well to take a steamer through this portion of the valley of the Rhone.

Imagine a river larger than the Hudson, with a stronger current rushing on, often in short abrupt turns through mountains very similar to the highlands, and these mountains terraced down to the bottom and covered with vineyards—occasionally high precipitous spurs of lofty ranges, terminating suddenly with an almost perpendicular front, upon whose storm beaten summit is seen a frowning castle in ruins—with small straggling villages, cut as it were out of the solid rock on the margin of the river; peasant cottages scattered along indiscriminately—and you have some idea of this picturesque country. There is very seldom seen any trees or anything like vegetation on these mountains, except the vineyards. Occasionally is seen a round topped hill with a scanty scarf of black bushes around its shoulder, pushing forward its naked and almost precipitous sides into the river, but it is seldom. In America we would think it was almost impossible to climb them, yet by the perseverance and industry of the peasantry here, a soil has been dug out of their flinty sides and with a warm sun and mountain dews, the best kind of grapes are grown.

They differ too in another particular from the Catskill mountains—they are shorter and more often broken by deep gorges. These gorges are also improved in the same manner. There can be of course no roads for even the little donkeys in most places, but little zigzag tracks or paths can be distinctly traced out where the peasants of both sexes ascend and descend. In many places where it was solid rock, banks or terraces have been made and earth carried up from the river to make a soil. The colour of the soil generally appears to be of a reddish hue. On further inquiry, I find that these vineyards are generally owned by proprietors who often employ from four to five hundred vintagers at the same time. The process of making the red wine is as follows: The grapes as they are brought in, are thrown into large troughs and then trodden by a number of men with large wooden shoes, until the grapes are all nearly broken, they are then taken out into baskets, with spaces wide enough to allow the grapes to pass through, when thus about two thirds of the stalks are separated from the grapes. The whole is then put back again into the vat containing the juice, which was extracted by the treading. A space is left of one foot in the vat for fermentation. Over the whole is then placed a sliding lid which prevents the escape of the gas. It takes from two to ten days, according to the state of the weather, to produce the necessary fermentation; when it slackens, the whole sinks within the top of the vat; the stalks remaining skins, and other extraneous substances are found at the top, completely separated from the pure liquor. The latter is then drawn off into huge casks containing about 700 gallons each. Every three or four months it is pumped into other vats of the same dimensions and the settlings carefully removed with a brush and cold water. This is continued until it is perfectly pure. It is then bottled and kept from two to twelve years, when it is marketed. Such is the process of making Burgundy wine.

All through the valley to the Mediterranean, are found Roman antiquities—such as the remains of aqueducts, walls and arches, amphitheatres, temples and churches. At several small villages may be seen traces of the vast aqueduct, constructed it is said by the soldiers of Mark Anthony, when his legions were quartered at Lyons to supply the city with water from the distant mountains of La Forez. Also are seen remains of Agrippa's four great walls diverging from the same city towards the sea and in three other directions. At Nismes, a village not far distant, I am informed there are many well preserved antiquities; among the rest an amphitheatre of immense proportions. It consists of two stories, each of sixty arcades, seventy feet high. There were originally thirty-two rows of seats, and the number of spectators which it is supposed the building might have contained is variously estimated at from 15,000 to 25,000. Many of the seats, doors and corridors, remain entire.

From Valence we again took the railroad to Marseilles, distant over 200 miles. With the exception that the mountains are less abrupt and the valley of the Rhone much wider, the country presents the same peculiarities. The vineyards, however, give place to other kinds of crops, both sown and planted, but what they were I could not learn. The meadows were highly cultivated and abounded in fruit trees. The air was more soft and balmy, and I felt as if I were approaching a southern climate.

At a little before dark we reached the city of Avignon—the ancient city of the popes. It is still surrounded by lofty walls and batilements and flanked by watch towers. The palace of the Popes, now converted into a barrack, is still magnificent on account of its immense proportions, and very impressive notwithstanding its present degradation, from the historical associations connected with it. It is in its architecture of a mixed character, having the appearance both of a feudal castle and convent. Its walls are 100 feet high and some of its towers 150 feet, with a proportionate thickness. In these splendid halls that now echo blasphemous oaths, or the ribald song, the Cardinals sat and elected the Popes. Giotto and his pupils adorned the walls. Here Petrarch was a guest, and in the dungeons below, Rienzi, the Roman tribune, was a prisoner. Not far from the city in a little quiet village almost inaccessible by reason of the high and rugged rocks around it, is still shown the retired garden of Petrarch, by the side of a natural grotto in the rock, cultivated with his own hands. From this spot in hearing of a gushing stream; the poet thus wrote to a friend, long, long ago:

"The Sorgues, transparent as crystal, rolls over its emerald bed; and by its bank I cultivate a little sterile and stony spot, which I have destined to the muses; but the jealous nymphs dispute the possession of it with me; they destroy in the spring, the labors of my summer. I had conquered from them a little meadow and had not enjoyed it long, when, upon my return from a journey into Italy, I found that they had robbed me of all my possession. But I was not to be discouraged; I collected the laborers, the fishermen and the shepherds and raised a rampart against the nymphs; and there we raised an altar to the muses; but alas! experience has proved that it is in vain to battle with the elements. I no longer dispute with the Sorgues a part of its bed; the nymphs have gained the victory. Hence I please myself with my little gardens and my narrow dwelling. I want nothing and look for no favors from fortune. If you come to me you will see a solitary, who wanders in the meadows, the fields, the forests and the mountains, resting on the mossy grottoes or beneath the shady trees. Your friend detests the intrigues of court, the tumult of cities, and flies from the abodes of pageantry and pride—equally removed from joy or sadness, he passes his days in the most profound calm, happy to have the muses for his companions, and the song of birds and the murmur of the stream for his serenade."

As it was quite dark when we left Avignon, I saw nothing of the balance of the journey to this city.

Marseilles, the most important seaport of France, contains a population of 200,000 inhabitants and is the most American-like City in Europe. Its buildings are mostly modern, its streets wide and airy and humming with the various sounds of business. The old harbor being found entirely too small for the large amount of shipping centering here, a new and capacious harbor is nearly completed north of the old one, which has been built at a great expense. The commerce of this city is said to date back three thousand years, to the time when the Phœnicians first set foot on her shores, bringing with them the civilization of the East, which in time worked a change in the barbarianism of the west.—But obviously the main reason of its prosperity particularly at the present time is owing to the advantages of a good harbor and the fact that the French are now monopolizing the trade of the Mediterranean. Even Englishmen, in travelling either to the East Indies, Asia or the Crimea, pass over to Paris and thence to Marseilles, instead of going round by water to this point. Several lines of French steamers start from here for various points on the Mediterranean and all of those of the British lines stop here.

But the boats are now mostly shipping troops and war supplies; during a stay of four days here I presume ten thousand troops have left. The news of sickness and death in the barracks, with all the horrors of a protracted siege, has no terrors for a French soldier. True to the character of the Troubador in days that are past he thus takes leave of his fair one, and then he is in the line keeping time with the heavy tread of his fellows, as they defile off towards the sea, to the inspiring strains of martial music:

"I'm leaning o'er the gate, Annie,
'Neath the cottage wall;
The gray dawn breaks, the hour grows late,
I hear the trumpet's call.
I could not brook thy cheek so pale,
The sad tear in thine eye;
This heart, which sinks at war, might quail—
So, Annie dear, good bye!

"I'm marching with the brave, Annie,
Far from home and thee,
To win renown, perhaps a grave—
A glorious one 'twill be!
But whatever the fate I meet—
To conquer or to die—
This heart's last throb for thee will beat,—
So, Annie dear, good bye!"

These companies of troops are all well drilled and would favorably compare with the independent companies in large American Cities, being however under more rigid discipline. In war as on sea I find that every man has a place and knows where it is. The necessity of the case makes that law absolute.

In the South part of the City is a high barren cliff or mass of rock overhanging the Sea called Notre Dame de la Garde, from a curious little chapel situated within a foot on its summit. Within this humble shrine is an image of the virgin of olive wood, and of great antiquity, which is held in great respect by the lower classes. The inside is hung with thousands of ex-votos, chiefly paintings representing hairbreadth escapes by sea and land &c., &c. These are generally put up by fishermen's and sailor's wives, merchants &c., for absent friends.

The view from the top of this hill is very fine. To the south are seen the calm waters of the Mediterranean dotted with sail, and the city lying down in a basin, surrounded by hills on all other sides. These hills are covered with vineyards and olive gardens, and speckled with white country houses. In the distance is seen the bleak form of Monte Christo towering up. This mountain is remembered from Dumas' novel.

The Fighting before Sebastopol.

The correspondent of the London Times, under date of March 22d, gives the following graphic sketch, which seems to describe the almost daily and nightly course of events for some weeks previously:

The contest for the rifle-pits terminated this morning, amid a blaze of fire from the forts in the pale light of dawn, in favor of the French who now occupy three of the pits, and direct a sharp fusillade against the Mamelon and Round Tower from the sand-bags. The Russian riflemen are in one of the pits still; two seem to be unoccupied. The enemy have also placed riflemen in the Mamelon and the new work on the right, and a gun from Gordon's trenches, and one from the French redoubt on the right are constantly engaged in firing round shot and shell into the former place throughout the day, to reduce the fire and impede the men in their work. Our two sea service mortars fire seldom, but surely; their range is very great. One shell yesterday evening went far over and beyond the Round Tower, and burst among the buildings in the rear of it. Another burst through the roof of one of the public buildings, and it instantly collapsed into a cloud of dust and rubbish.

For the last half hour—it is now 10.45 P. M.—a furious fight has been raging all along our front. To a person standing on Cathcart's-hill, in front of the 4th Division, the whole of the Russian lines are revealed in successive glimpses by bursts of red flame, and the bright star-like flashes of musketry, twinkled all over the black expanse between us and the town for three or four miles in length, show that a fierce contest is going on before the trenches of the Allies.—Shells, each marked by a distinctive point of fire where the fuse is burning, describe their terrible curves in the air and seem to mingle with the stars, and fiery rockets with long trails of dropping sparks rush like comets through the air. Above all the pale crescent moon is shining from a deep blue sky, covered with the constellations of heaven. The roar of the cannon, the hissing of the shells, the intermittent groan of the musketry, the wild scream of the rockets, and the whizzing of the round shot, form a horrid concert.

It is curious to note the eagerness of the men on such occasions; they swarm out of their tents to the lines in front, and watch the progress of the fight, as far as they can make it out, with the deepest interest, and their whispered comments are most amusing—"That's a lively shell from the French." "Mossoo is getting his bellyful." "I wish they'd let us go at that, and we'd not waste so much powder," &c.

The flashes of the cannon mark pretty distinctly the flowings and ebbings of the tide of war. If the Russian guns are thundering away we may be sure, they are falling back. If our guns are more briskly served than usual, we are either covering an attack on the pits or are protecting the withdrawal of the allies. Most of the Generals on nights like these come out to the front and watch the fight, and the officers form in little groups on all the elevated knolls before the camps. I have just returned to the hut in which I am lodging. It is now 11. 15 P. M., but the conflict is still going on. No one knows what it is about. To-morrow I hope to be able to learn something about it, but the difficulty of ascertaining the particulars of attacks like these is utterly incredible. Even the staff officers—even the generals themselves—seldom know anything respecting the proceedings of our allies till a day after they have taken place, and a bystander hears with surprise warm controversies among military men as to the direction in which a shell is coming at night, and as to the battery—whether French or English—from which it has been sent.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The returns show an increase in the English revenue for the last financial year of £6,312,694, the bulk of which is due to the double income tax.

The Board of Trade returns for the month ending March 5, had just been published, and showed compared with the corresponding month of last year, the unprecedented decrease of nearly £2,500,000 sterling, furnishing strong evidence of the rapid contraction of business throughout the country.

Some of the Liverpool ship-owners who had charters from Government for transports, have been informed that their ships will not be required. This is scarcely to be taken as a peace indication.

Rev. Mr. Boyle, a Roman Catholic priest, sued Cardinal Wiseman for a libel written by the Cardinal in the Univers of Paris. A verdict was given for the plaintiff, with damages £1,000.

Militia regiments continue to volunteer for garrison duty abroad.

Mr. Layard had gone to Aberdeen, Scotland, to receive investiture and make an oration as Rector of the University of that city.

The French Government has entered a criminal prosecution against the publisher of the Belgian edition of the so-called "suppressed pamphlet," entitled a "Memoir addressed to the Government of Napoleon III., by a general officer."

The French public appear well pleased with the proposed visit of the Emperor and Empress to England; and, it is said, Queen Victoria will soon reciprocate the visit. They say, too, that if Napoleon goes to the Crimea the Sultan will accompany him.

Cholera has reappeared at St. Petersburg; 170 cases are reported.

LAUNCH OF THE ANN TYRIN.—A fine vessel of about 85 tons burthen, owned by ——— Anderson, was launched from the ship yard of E. Sorenson on Monday evening last. She went off in fine style and like most of the Manitowoc vessels fits upon the water like a duck. We have given her dimensions in a former number.—[Manitowoc Tribune.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT—April 28.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, ESQ., POLICE JUSTICE.

George Bryant was brought down from jail to be examined on a charge of larceny. The defendant waived an examination and the court fixed the bail for his appearance at the Circuit Court at $1,000, but at the suggestion of the District Attorney reduced the amount to $700. The bail was not forthcoming and the defendant was remanded to jail.

BREAKING WINDOWS.—Thos. Hanley and John Leonard were tried for breaking the windows in the New York House a night or two since. The only evidence against the defendant Leonard, was that he was near the scene of the trouble, so drunk that he had to hold on to a post to keep himself from falling, and was afterwards found lying in the middle of the street, and with the help of two men was taken to jail—he was discharged. The other man, Hanley, admitted he had done half the breaking of the windows; he was also intoxicated, but not to any great extent. Hanley was fined $25 and costs. The latter is the young man who came into the Police Court on Saturday last intoxicated, and was committed to jail for contempt of court. The court remarked that as he seemed determined to get drunk and get in scrapes, it would be for his own good that he should punish him to some extent. The fine not being paid, the defendant was taken to jail.

RUNAWAY.—A runaway of the steeple-chase kind took place on Saturday afternoon, the winning post appearing to be located in front of the American House. A span of horses belonging to Wilson & Besley, came down Spring street at a full gallop, with a lumber wagon, which part of the time was behind them, and when opposite the American House tried to leap over a dirt cart, but failed. The three horses were piled in a heap—two of them badly injured—one will probably die. No person was injured.

SCHR. MAY QUEEN.—This new and beautiful vessel, recently launched at Jones' shipyard, has already commenced loading at ALVORD'S warehouse. She takes about 11,000 bushels wheat, at a freight of 20c per bush to Buffalo.

THE CENSUS.—The acts, oaths, blanks, &c., for taking the Census, were received on Saturday, by Mr. BADE, clerk of the Board of Supervisors. According to the act, the Census must be taken between the first of June and first of August.

FOR GREEN BAY.—The steamer Superior Capt. TOMPKINS, leaves Dousman's dock for Green Bay, touching at Sheboygan, Manitowoc and Two Rivers, on Wednesday morning at 8, o'clock.—For passage, apply to J. GRIFFIN, on Huron St.

This is the first trip of the season to the bay, and the steamer will doubtless have a good load. We hope that she will bring back some of the stone which we are looking for.

MAP OF WATERTOWN.—We acknowledge the receipt of a very handsome lithographed Map of the thriving city of Watertown, drawn by our friend JUDSON PRENTICE, late Senator from Dodge Co. The whole city, with its noble water-power, plank-road, railroads, public buildings, &c. &c., is marked out on a scale convenient to the operator in real estate; and profitable operations of that sort are not rare about these days.

REMOVALS.—Mr. L. MORAWETZ, as will be seen by his advertisements, opens this morning at one of the new and splendid stores built on the site of the old United States block.

CHARLES PREUSSER has removed his jewelry establishment to 249 East Water Street, where he remains until his new store is completed. This will be a very handsome building, and is to cost $8000

ARCHITECT.—See the card of Mr. J. DILLEBERG, Architect, whose services may be obtained by calling at his office in the Juneau Block.

MILLS FOR SALE.—The excellent Mills at Ceresco and Ripon, Fond du Lac Co. are offered for sale. They will be good investments for somebody.

☞ BOSWORTH & SONS notify the public of the receipt of new goods at their new and handsome store.

HOUSE TO LET.—See advertisement of S. BISHOP.

Swine Running at Large.

Messrs Editors:—I notice in this morning's Sentinel, an article in reference to the grievous annoyance and nuisance of Swine running at large in the streets. The only remedy I know of, is an Ordinance to be found upon the 93d page of the Book of Ordinances of the City, the 1st Section of which prohibits the running at large of certain animals, including Swine, under a penalty of two dollars for each and every offence—the remainder of the ordinance provides for impounding, &c. Now I advise "Pro Bono Publico" to stir up the "animals," and give them a few doses of the ordinance, or provide himself with a loaded musket and feed them well with Peas, or something more substantial, when they force his gates, as I intend to do—and should the "critter," take it into his head to die under such treatment and the owner claim payment, commence a suit against him at once for the penalty under the 1st section of the ordinance, and for damages.

How to Abate a Nuisance.

Messrs. Editors:

In your issue of this morning, "Pro Bono Publico" asks if there be not some way to protect our gardens, yards, streets, &c. from the ravages of swine, I can suggest one. Let an Ordinance empower any one, to take and hold possession of all swine found at large, this will effectually cure the evil. In Detroit or Cleveland, a Negro made himself rich in three months, by such an Ordinance. Let such an Ordinance be passed in our city and in one month there will be such a scarcity of pig-face in our streets as would satisfy the strictest Israelite in all the land of Goshen.

Milwaukee, April 28.

Detroit and Milwaukee Rail Road.

The engineer of this important enterprise, Robert Higham, Esq., has prepared his report of the Detroit and Pontiac and the Oakland & Ottawa, now the Detroit & Milwaukee Rail Roads, with the cost, and the estimated business when finished. From this report we gather such facts as we can find for to-day, believing we can give our readers nothing that has a more direct bearing upon the fortunes of this city and the portion of the State intersected by it. The length of this road from Pontiac to Lake Michigan is 160 miles. The original contractors for the work, finding it impracticable to fulfil their contracts, abandoned it in 1853, and in November of the same year, a new contract was made for the work from Pontiac to Owasso, a distance of fifty three miles, embracing the entire construction of the road except the right of way, iron, chairs, and buildings. In August last the remainder of the work was let including every thing except the right of way and buildings.

Twenty-six hundred tons of iron purchased in England has been delivered in New York twelve hundred tons of which is now in Detroit, and the balance in course of transit from New York to this city. The right of way from Pontiac to Clinton county—86 miles—has been secured, except in a few cases, where the owners could not be found.

In this city the Company have procured a river front of one-third of a mile (1650 feet) east from Randolph street, and of an average width of 350 feet for their depot, machine shops, car shops freight houses &c. This purchase will give the Company the most extensive depot grounds probably, in the Union, and as eligible as any other. It gives them a river front three times the length of that of the Michigan Central Road, even, and of considerably greater width. It is admirably situated for the purposes intended, being almost in the heart of the city, and directly opposite the terminus of the Great Western Railway.

There are several well ascertained points on the line where traffic centres from a large surrounding territory at which the road might be temporarily terminated, and the portion constructed made profitable by being put in operation, in connection with the Pontiac Railroad. The very unfavorable time in regard to financial matters in which the road was commenced, has somewhat retarded its progress, and it was feared this course might have become necessary. But the present indications are that the work will be pushed ahead without interruption. The ties are already nearly all delivered from Fentonville to Owasso, and the road may be ready for the cars, if the iron can be had, by the first of August next. The contractors are also at work from Owasso to Ionia, and at the rate the work has progressed, the grading will be ready to the superstructure by September next. From Ionia to Lake Michigan, there is no very formidable work required, and nothing that requires more than 18 months to complete this part of the line.

The estimate made of the whole cost of the work in 1854, was $5,150,000. Its total cost under existing contract will amount to $6,192,000, or an increase of $1,042,000 over that estimate. This increase is in consequence of the price at which the Pontiac Company held their stock above what was estimated, and the purchase of the Depot grounds in this city.

The capacity of the road for business, by reason of the low grades, the large radius of the curves, and the great proportion of straight lines to the curves, it is estimated by the Engineer, will exceed that of the New York Central Road, or the Great Western. When finished it will be a complete work in itself extending across the entire State, and might safely rely upon the resources of the country through which it runs for its support. But its position as part of the Great Northern trunk line from Boston and New York to the Mississippi, and finally, from thence to the Pacific, gives it, in a measure, a national character, and secures to a large amount of through traffic between the country west of Lake Michigan and from the east. Its connection to the west are by ferries across Michigan with the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad, and in the east by the Great Western, with the New York Central, and all its branches and connections.

By a table accompanying the report, it is shown that the population tributary to this road exceeds that tributary to the Michigan Central within the State, and that the amount of improvements and products are in the most cases equal to, and in some exceed those of the Central Road. The experience of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Road for the last year, showing a traffic of $456,864, on 97 miles, is pointed to as convincing evidence that the Detroit & Milwaukee road will be a profitable investment when completed. The experience of the Great Western for the last year is also referred to for the same purpose.

But we have not time to-day to give any very extended extracts from this interesting and very satisfactory report. We have given enough, however, to show that the work on the Detroit and Milwaukee road has been making all the progress that could have been reasonably expected, in view of the great financial embarrassment that has prevailed throughout the country since it was commenced. Indeed, the surprise to us is, that the company have been able to do anything for the past year. All railroad enterprises in other parts of the country have been suspended with scarcely an exception. The citizens of Detroit and of Northern Michigan have reason to congratulate themselves that the work on this road is an exception. The Board of Directors are certainly entitled to the warmest thanks of those interested for the energy with which they have struggled against all embarrassment, and the sacrifices they have made to prevent a suspension of operations.—Detroit Tribune.

QUICK TRIP.—The schooner Transit, Captain Hughes, owned by B. Jones & Co. of this vilage, has made three trips to Milwaukee and one to Waukegan within the space of sixteen days.—[Manitowoc Tribune.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN.
A little girl crossing Broadway, above the mound, a day or two ago, was knocked down and badly bruised by the reckless driving of a drunken brute, who immediately put whip to his horse and made off. Several persons ran to see if the child was hurt. Whilst some cursed the driver—some pitied the child, and others wondered who she was—an old countryman got down from his wagon, drew from his pocket a bottle of Mustang Liniment, bathed the wounds upon the child, and carried her in a state of insensibility, to a neighboring house, which proved to be her home. Yesterday he had the satisfaction to see her quite well. "Ah!" said the old man, "I never knew it to fail—I always carry a bottle in my pocket;" and so he does.—St. Louis Intelligencer.

Lots in Sherman's Addition

FOR SALE.

THE FOLLOWING LOTS IN SHERMAN'S ADDITION for sale. The titles to all these Lots are good. The difficulty concerning the title of said Lots has been removed by a decision of the United States Court, therefore there will be no more question about the title.

Now for another fact.—A more beautiful prospect can not be found than Sherman's Addition. You have a full view of the City and Lake, for health it is not to be surpassed, the soil is rich, and I see no reason why property in Sherman's Addition should not command as good prices as in the First Ward, and it will if only a few individuals will commence and build fine houses. I, for one, will sell my present premises, and would agree to build in Sherman's Addition, Second Ward.

The foregoing Lots are sold to close up the estate of our late friend HOLLIDAY.

The Union of this A. M., has a long article on the state of our affairs with Spain. It states that the President regards the recent bringing to an examination of American vessels as a violation of the international law, and an indignity to our flag, an aggression upon our rights which will not be tolerated. Com McAuley is not to argue with the Spanish cruisers as to the right of search, visitation, or examination, but to say to them, You can claim no search of any vessel rightfully bearing our flag upon the high seas under any guise or pretext in my presence, or within my reach. If you attempt it the act will be at your peril. The Union further says, the Spanish Government have the issue of war or peace in their hands, for if they persist in their aggressions, war is inevitable.

PROCLAMATION

To the Sick.

BRING hither "the poor, the halt, the lame and the blind." If you would have them healed of their many infirmities. We boldly and fearlessly assert that the Mustang Liniment will positively cure them. Let any one who is afflicted with this most painful complaint try it thoroughly, according to directions, and if they are not cured we will give them their money back. What more can we say? It will also cure the Piles. Thousands have tried it—and all were cured. Bruises, sprains, sores, eruptions fade away as if touched with the magician's wand. Its application to Burns or Scalds acts like "oil upon troubled waters." The tempest of pain and agony is soon stilled, and the patient is hushed to quiet and peaceful slumbers. "There is a balm for every wound," and that balm is the Mustang Liniment. Everybody that sells medicine keeps it for sale. "If it is your horses" and if they are crippled, galled or sprained, use the Mustang Liniment. In a word it is

A BALM FOR EVERY WOUND, A CURE FOR

Rheumatism, Scald Head, Gout, Neuralgia, Caked Breast, Stiff Joints, Lumbago, Sore Nipples, Bruises, Scratches, sore Shins, Cuts, Salt Rheum, Burns, Chafes, Tetter, Scald, Galls, Piles, Ulcers, Spavin, Splint, Ring Bone, Sweeny, Poll Evil, Scratches, sores, Hard Lumps or Tumors, and of all kinds of

Pains or Inflamation in Man or Beast.

RELIABLE EVIDENCE

BLOOMFIELD, Mo., January 15, 1854.

Messrs. A. G. BRAGG & Co.,

DEAR SIRS, Allow me to add my testimony to the excellent properties of your Mustang Liniment in all cases of burns or scalds. I had a son badly burned on his face and hands by powder. I was expecting that he would be badly scarred for life. We applied the Mustang, withdrew ... and in ten days it was entirely well and left no scar, or mark whatever. My wife used it in a case of scald from boiling hot tallow and it had the same good effect.

Yours, truly, D. B. MILLER, County Judge.

RUSSELL COUNTY, Ala., Feb. 1, 1853.

For the benefit of the afflicted, I feel it my duty to state publicly the remarkable cures that have been effected in my family by the use of the Mustang Liniment. A negress of mine had what is called a Bone Felon or Whitlow on her finger. The inflammation had been so extensive, that the whole finger had become a mass of corruption, and the only hope of saving her hand and perhaps her life appeared to be to have it cut off. As her general health was very delicate, the Physician advised us to try the Mustang Liniment a few days, till she could be sent to a surgeon in Columbus, as it could do no harm and might prevent mortification. To the astonishment of the doctor and myself, the pain soon ceased, the inflammation subsided, and the wound rapidly healed. The finger is perfectly well and sound. One of my boys was severely burned, the skin was entirely taken off from the knee to the ankle. The Mustang Liniment was freely applied, and no blister was ... The relief and cure were almost beyond belief, but a short time elapsed before the wounds were perfectly healed. I consider it an invaluable remedy, and it should be in every family and on every plantation. JAMES PHILIPS.

NOTHING NEW—BUT EVER TRUE.—It would be nothing new to say that the Mustang Liniment had been and was now more used in the United States than any other preparation. But it would be true to say that it has been more uniformly successful in healing wounds, bruises, burns, cuts and all manner of sores, as well as piles, sprains, pains or lameness in the back, side or limbs, than rheumatism, or any other remedy. ... that millions of persons know from having used it. We say millions, and base the assertion on the fact that over fifteen millions of bottles have been used and never heard a complaint against it, where it has been used as directed and used thoroughly. We deem it necessary occasionally to remind the people of these facts, to induce those to try it who may never have had an occasion to use it. One trial is all we ask the most incredulous—and such a trial will only cost 25 cents.

PRICES.—It is put up in bottles of all sizes and retailed at 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 per bottle. The fifty cent and one dollar bottles contain three and six times as much as the twenty five cent size in proportion to the cost. The large bottles are the cheapest.

RHODES'

FEVER AND AGUE CURE,

OR,

Nature's Infallible Specific.

FOR the Prevention and Cure of Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, Fever and Ague, Chill and Fever, Dumb Ague, General Debility, Night Sweats and all other forms of disease which have a common origin in Malaria or Miasma. This sub-atmospheric poison which at certain seasons is unavoidably inhaled at every breath, is the same in character wherever it exists,—North, South, East or West,—and will everywhere yield to this newly discovered antidote, which is claimed to be the GREATEST DISCOVERY IN MEDICINE EVER MADE.

This specific is so harmless that it may be taken by persons of every age, sex or condition, and it will not substitute for one disease others still worse, as is too often the result in the treatment by Quinine, Mercury, Arsenic, and other poisonous or deleterious drugs, not a particle of any of which is admitted into this preparation.

The proprietor distinctly claims these extraordinary results from the use of this NATURAL ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.

It will entirely protect any resident or traveler even in the most sickly or swampy localities, from any Ague or Billious disease whatever, or any injury from constantly inhaling Malaria or Miasma.

It will instantly check the Ague in persons who have suffered any length of time, from one day to twenty years, so that they need never have another chill by continuing its use according to directions.

It will immediately relieve all distressing results of Billious or Ague diseases, such as general debility, night sweats, &c. The patient at once begins to recover appetite and strength, and continues until a permanent and radical cure is effected.

Finally, its use will banish Fever and Ague from families and all classes. Farmers and all laboring men by adopting it as a preventative will be free from Ague or Billious attacks in that season of the year which, while it is the most sickly, is the most valuable one to them.

One or two bottles will answer for ordinary cases, some may require more.

Directions printed in German, French and Spanish, accompany each bottle.

Price One Dollar. Liberal discounts made to the trade. Trade circulars forwarded on application, and the article will be consigned on liberal terms to responsible parties in every section of the country.

BRING hither "the poor, the halt, the lame and the blind" If you would have them healed of their many infirmities We boldly and fearlessly assert that the Mustang Liniment will positively cure Rheumatism. Let any one who is afflicted with that most painful complaint try it thoroughly, according to directions, and if they are not cured we will give them their money back What more can we say? It will also cure the Piles The words have tried it—and all were cured Bruises, Sprains, Sores, Eruptions fade away as if touched with the magician's wand. Its application to Burns or Scalds acts like "oil upon troubled waters" The tempest of pain and agony is soon stilled, and the patient is hushed to quiet and peaceful slumbers "There is a balm for every wound," and that balm is the Mustang Liniment Everybody that sells medicine keeps it for sale "Heal your horses" and if they are crippled, galled or sprained, use the Mustang Liniment In a word it is

Pains or Inflamation in Man or Beast.

RELIABLE EVIDENCE

BLOOMFIELD, Mo, January 15, 1854

Messrs A G BRAGG & Co.,

DEAR SIRS, Allow me to add my testimony to the excellent properties of your Mustang Liniment in all cases of burns or scalds I had a son badly burned on his face and hands by powder I was expecting that he would be badly scarred for life We applied the Mustang with raw cotton, and nothing else, and in ten days it was entirely well and left no scar, or mark whatever My wife used it in a case of scald from boiling hot tallow and it had the same good effect

Yours, truly, D D. MILLER, County Judge.

RUSSELL COUNTY, Ala, Feb 1, 1853

For the benefit of the afflicted, I feel it my duty to state publickly the remarkable cures that have been effected in my family by the use of the Mustang Liniment. A negress of mine had what is called a Bone felon or Whitlow on her finger The inflamation had been so extensive, that the whole finger had become a mass of corruption, and the only hope of saving her hand and perhaps her life appeared to be to have it cut off As her general health was very delicate, the Physician advised me to try the Mustang Liniment a few days, till she could be sent to a surgeon in Columbus as it could do no harm and might prevent mortification To the astonishment of the doctor and myself, the pain soon ceased, the inflamation subsided, and the wound rapidly healed The finger is perfectly well and sound One of my boys was severely burned, the skin was entirely taken off from the knee to the ankle The Mustang Liniment was freely applied, and nothing else was used The relief and cure were almost beyond belief, but a short time elapsed before the wounds were perfectly healed I consider it an invaluable remedy, and it should be in every family and on every plantation JAMES PHILIPS

NONE SO NEW—BUT EVEN TRUE.—It would be nothing new to say that the Mustang Liniment had been and was now more used in the United States than any other preparation But it would be true to say that it has been more uniformly successful in healing wounds, bruises, burns cuts and all manner of sores, as well as pains, sprains, pains or lameness in the back, side or Limbs, than rheumatism, any other remedy. There are thousands that millions of persons know from having used it We say millions, and base the assertion on the fact that over fifteen millions of bottles have been used and I never heard a complaint against it, where it has been used as directed, and used thoroughly We deem it necessary occasionally to remind the people of these facts to induce those to try it who may never have had an occasion to use it. One trial is all we ask the most incredulous—and such a trial will only cost 25 cents

PRICES — It is put up in bottles of all sizes and retailed at 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 per bottle The fifty cent and one dollar bottles contain three and six as much as the twenty five cent size in proportion to the cost. The large bottles are the cheapest

This specific is so harmless that it may be taken by persons of every age, sex or condition, and it will not substitute for one disease others still worse, as is too often the result in the treatment by Quinine, Mercury, Arsenic, and other poisonous or deleterious drugs, not an article of any of which is admitted into this preparation

The proprietor distinctly claims these extraordinary results from the use of this NATURAL ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA

It will immediately relieve all distressing results of Bilious or Ague diseases, such as general debility, night sweats, &c The patient at once begins to recover appetite and strength, and continues until a permanent and radical cure is effected

Finally, its use will banish Fever and Ague from families in all classes Farmers and all laboring men by adopting it as a preventative will be free from Ague or Bilious attacks in that season of the year which, while it is the most sickly, is the most valuable one to them

From the illustrious Pianist, L M GOTTSCHALK, to Mr Hews, Agent at New York
NEW YORK, Dec 5, 1853

MR N J CURTISS —
Dear Sir Having had the pleasure of performing on one Hews American Action Piano at the World's Fair in this city the present year, and other of his Pianos at your Wareroom, which afforded me much gratification, I cheerfully recommend them to the public I am very glad of the improvement in the action These instruments likewise are of excellent tone, owing, no doubt, to the perfection of the scales.
Very Respectfully, L M GOTTSCHALK

From the distinguished Pianist, WILLIAM MASON

QUEEN'S PATENT

PORTABLE
FORGE
AND
BELLOWS!

THIS FORGE can be set where most convenient for light and room, and the smoke conducted to the Chimney by a Pipe
There are six sizes of Blacksmiths, Coppersmiths, &c Forges, and five sizes of Jewelers, Dentists and Chemists
It is compact—the Twier Iron is of a superior construction—heats the iron in the quickest manner—the wind escapes from the hot air chamber through several holes in the Twier cap, which being under the fire, prevents the Twier from getting filled up with coal and ashes, as it will where there is but one opening For out door work and for safety in doors, this Forge has great advantages over others having two Slides by which the Forge can be closely shut up, and for safety and many purposes in-doors, (particularly for Jewelers, Dentists and for chemical operations) all the fumes from charcoal and acids being conducted through the smoke pipe, or when open they are entirely out of the way, it is also so constructed that fire or water cannot injure the Bellows, which is in the cylinder under the fire bed
It is the best Forge for Contractors on Railroads Public Works, (for making repairs on the same,) and for emigration to new countries, ever offered to the public, and are successfully used by most of the steamers, and also by the U S Army and Navy For sale by

CROUP, ASTHMA, AND
CONSUMPTION.

AMONG the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life —increase its enjoyments, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicines or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use but we would present the following, and refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the Agents below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are all particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements

Office of Transportation Laurens R R, S C, Aug 4, 53
DR J C AYER Dear Sir —My little son four years old, has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten and every person that visited him pronounced him a dead child Having used your CHERRY PECTORAL, in California, in the winter of 1850 for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire success, I was induced to try it on my little boy I gave him a teaspoonful every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by 10 o'clock at night, I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use, he was able to eat or drink without pain
Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent For all affections of the Throat and Lungs I believe it is the best medicine extant A feeling of the deepest gratitude prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world
I am yours, with great respect

Rocky Hill, Somerset Co, N J, July 11, 1852
DR J C AYER —Since your medicine has become known here it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it is not too much for the good it has done I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers
Please send me a further supply and believe me
Yours with respect, JOHN C WHITLOCK
P S.—Almost any number of certificates can be sent you if you wish it

Windsor, C W, June 26, 1855
DR J C AYER—Sir —This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs and I do not overstate my convictions when I tell you it is a priceless remedy
Yours very respectfully,
D A McCLURE, Attorney at Law

Wilkesbarre, Pa Sept 28, 1850
DR J C AYER—My dear Sir —Your medicine is much approved by those who have used it here, and its composition is such as to insure and maintain its reputation I invariably recommend it for pulmonary affections as do many of our principal physicians I am your friend

From the Illustrious Pianist, L M GOTTSCHALK, to Mr HEWS, Agent at New York

Mr N J CURTISS —
Dear Sir Having had the pleasure of performing upon two Hews American Action Piano at the World's Fair in this city the present year, and other of his Pianos at your Wareroom, which afforded me much gratification, I cheerfully recommend them to the public I am very glad of the improvement in the action These instruments likewise are of excellent tone, owing, no doubt, to the perfection of the scales.
Very Respectfully, L M GOTTSCHALK
From the distinguished Pianist, WILLIAM MASON
Mr HEWS —Having repeatedly played upon the Piano Fortes manufactured by you, with the American Action, I am free to acknowledge, that for certainty and elasticity of action, power, purity and equality of tone, I have never seen them surpassed in the square Piano Forte

QUEEN'S PATENT PORTABLE FORGE AND BELLOWS!

THIS FORGE can be set where most convenient for light and room, and the smoke conducted to the Chimney by a Pipe
There are six sizes of Blacksmiths, Coppersmiths, &c Forges, and five sizes of Jewelers, Dentists and Chemists
It is compact—the Twier Iron is of a superior construction—heats the iron in the quickest manner—the wind escapes from the hot air chamber through several holes in the Twier cap, which being under the fire, prevents the Twier from getting filled up with coal and ashes, as it will where there is but one opening For out door work and for safety in doors, this Forge has great advantages over others having two Slides by which the Forge can be close shut up, and for safety and many purposes in-doors, (particularly for Jewelers, Dentists and for chemical operations) all the fumes from charcoal and acids being conducted through the smoke pipe, or when open they are entirely out of the way, it is also so constructed that fire or water cannot injure the Bellows, which is in the cylinder under the fire bed
It is the best Forge for Contractors on Railroads Public Works, (for making repairs on the same,) and for emigration to new countries, ever offered to the public, and are successfully used by most of the steamers, and also by the U S Army and Navy For sale by

BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH,
CROUP, ASTHMA, AND
CONSUMPTION.

AMONG the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life —increase its enjoyments, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicines or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use but we would present the following, and refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the Agents below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are all particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements

Office of Transportation Laurens R R, S C, Aug 4, 53
DR J C AYER Dear Sir —My little son four years old, has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten and every person that visited him pronounced him a dead child Having used your CHERRY PECTORAL, in California, in the winter of 1850 for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire success, I was induced to try it on my little boy I gave him a teaspoonful every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by 10 o clock at night, I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use, he was able to eat or drink without pain
Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent For all affections of the Throat and Lungs I believe it is the best medicine extant A feeling of the deepest gratitude prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world
I am yours, with great respect

Rocky Hill, Somerset Co, N J, July 21, 1852
DR J C AYER —Since your medicine has become known here it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it is not too much for the good it has done I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers
Please send me a further supply and believe me
Yours with respect, JOHN C WHITLOCK
P S.—Almost any number of certificates can be sent you if you wish it

Windsor, C W, June 26, 1853
DR J C AYER—Sir —This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs and I do not overstate my convictions when I tell you it is a priceless remedy
Yours very respectfully,
D A McCLURE, Attorney at Law

Wilkesbarre, Pa Sept 28, 1850
DR J C AYER—My dear sir —Your medicine is much approved by those who have used it here, and its composition is such as to insure and maintain its reputation I invariably recommend it for pulmonary affections and do many of our principal physicians I am your friend
